The Gift by Diana Rose...

December 15, 2008

For the Diana Rose/Sara Pelfrey/The Gift Radio Show for December 19th, on Dec. 15th came this Message to be brought to the show of that day, a message of the voice I know only as Mary Magdalene -- about the special Holy Days of this special Year, and our loving and honor of each other, to create a new Rejoicing:

The Giving of the Gift of Love on this Holy Day: Give Unto Others As You Would Have Them Give Unto You...

- ☞ Give first of all your Love. Give it to those you would give the ultimate gift. Give it to all. Give Love with each gift. Send your love in the heart of the gifts you give to others and let it fly into their hearts.
- ☞ This Love without definition is beyond Time. This Love is the great sewer of hearts and of times and realities, knitting them together. You may not see the same reality, the same version of the story as another. But in your heart the Love is the same.
- ☞ When you give your Love in the ritual power of the giving of gifts on Holy Days, you give the translation of you, the understandable you, opening the door to the Understandable Other. You open the door both to greater understanding and to greater Knowledge. In both the giving and receiving of gifts is the ultimate teacher.
- ☞ In the act of receiving and listening to the gifts of others, take pause. As you would want others to pause in receiving a gift which you have given. Take in the Love and translation of the being which has been transmitted to you.
- ☞ In a way, it is a way of piecing (peacing) together that being in your mind and heart (image of Osiris) taking them in with warmth.

Give unto others as you would have them give unto you.
Give in the Now.

- ☞ In the absence of Time and in the Oneness of Time, it is always the Time of this Birth, of this star, the symbols of the presence of animal protectors, whose Love is pure, surrounding this birth in a manger – is a great Message. The wisdom of their innocence and purity of Love is as great as that wisdom we project as the 3 Wise Men. In reality these are the 3 aspects of you, in a state of Love. The star is another: The light within you. Find in each of these symbols of this Holy Day your own birth in this time of winter solstice: The Gift of You.

- ❧ When you give a gift, in truth, you give a piece of yourself -- as a mother would give a piece of herself to all of her children when she gives them life; she gives them part of her life. Think this way in giving.
- ❧ Think of all of your gifts as children, that they would grow into something very special wherever they go.
- ❧ Make a special gift at this time, of love and appreciation of You. Find the Beloved and the Giver of the Gift, find each of these in You.
- ❧ So it is a time that in giving to another, you will learn to give to yourself this honor, which you must now begin to give to the self as a Holy self.
- ❧ One of the problems in giving and receiving of gifts on Holy Days is that you do not feel yourself as Holy, as a giver of value, as a receiver of value, your Love being Sacred.
- ❧ Your body resonates with this knowledge at this time of year and in this most special year. Love it as a symbol from you to you, to remind you that the Giver and Receiver of Gifts at this Holy time is Holy, and it is a time of replenishing the fountains and reservoirs of that sense of Holiness, of complete Love – that is You.

- ❧ If you bless and give Love to each other and honor and love each other and yourself during this time, then you will join in a spirit of blessing which truly honors the birth of something new and innocent on the Earth and in you, as we honor that birth of the new and innocent baby in a manger, the home of the animals, with starlight shining above.
- ❧ That is the intent of all Holy Days – to rebirth in you again that sense of innocence of Love and Holiness in you.
- ❧ It is the time of the gift of eternal forgiveness, made whole in new birth. The giving of gifts of Love wipes away the judgment, the guilt, the angers of the past, the feelings of being a victim and unworthy. And instead of becoming Forever Giving – Forgiving.
- ❧ The tree of life is honored at this time in some Holy Days – with stars alight on the boughs of the trees to remind you of the star inside you.
- ❧ This is the message of this Holy time of birth, of compassionate rebirth, of joining in ancient songs as has been done at this time of the year in some way, since the beginning of this human spirit. There is starlight in the voices. There is starlight in you. You are full of Love and giving.
- ❧ And when someone gives you a gift of their own starlight, it is to honor the starlight in you. Take it in with love. Honor it in return. Loving the gifts given to you with all your heart is stardom –the greatest gesture of Love to the Giver; and it increases the Love given a hundred fold, for two are then Loving together in that one Gift.

- ❧ Again: Give unto others as you would have them give unto you.
- ❧ Receive from others as you would have them receive gifts from you, in Love.
- ❧ And let your giving bear witness to the love of the Earth as a gift, and its animals and plants and mangers – as a Gift.
- ❧ It is a Time of special Loving and honoring of the Earth in its winter solstice in the North, summer solstice in the South, its loving polarities, this great Mother of Life. All Mothers are Her. And so this is a time of honoring all Mothers and all children, as you would want to be honored.
- ❧ It is a time of Birth – which comes through a universe that has no religions but bears all life and Love. And in the eyes of all beings, you see its starlight. In the eyes of this babe to become man or woman – is the starlight. In his eyes and in her eyes, in them incredible smiles of life and continual birth and rebirth – there is rejoicing you must find again.
- ❧ That was the true power of this Great Birth of a beautiful son of a beautiful mother – she as the Earth, giving to the baby the stars in her eyes – and a beautiful, caring father of Earth and of stars:

The Great Rejoicing.

- ❧ This is the gift you must give this year across the Earth, in preparation for what is to come:

Rejoice in each other and rejoice in your heart.

- ❧ And each time you do this, then Time disappears and you will see that you are present at that birth. Regardless of the religions and cultures of the ages, you are suddenly completely present in the moment of the great joy and birth on Earth. You are transported. And you, too, are reborn in a manger of loving animals and parents under the stars; parents in the stars. YOU ARE THERE. This is what you are to remember at this special Time in this special Year.
- ❧ You are being born of Love and giving and forgiving called the Forever Giving.
- ❧ It is you, in this place. You are there.
- ❧ Bless this day and all who share it with you. Bless the baby of life that knows the joy of this day, your touching heart, the hug of life, of parents, all who breathe the breath of their Love and laughter into you, into the newborn honored on this day.
- ❧ It is you in the manger, Beloved ones. It was always you. It will always be you. That was always the message of this Day...
- ❧ Every time you give in fullness of heart to another, as you would want to be given to, that star above this place of birth grows brighter, and all can find their way to this place. That is the message of this Day...

- ❧ As you honor each other, so you honor him and you honor her, the babes of Love born on this Day...born forever. There is no end and no beginning to this day of Joy and Love and Birth.
- ❧ And that is what you are now to create. It is a Day which will always be remembered – this great Day given to you – this Day of your own starry Birth and Joy.
- ❧ Be silent together and light in your hearts full rejoicing and love in this Day of Birth...

A Message of Mary Magdalene...
