

The Gift” Fundamental Principles

By Diana Rose

“The Gift” by Diana Rose Key Elements: What It Is & What it Is Not

- “The Gift” is a Training. It was called an Ancient Ceremony of Love returned to the Woman when received. But for those who have experienced its reading, some creating classes around it - that it is training. The Teacher is within and the reading of the steps seems to bring that Teacher into the heart.
- “The Gift” is an energy activation. It is said within that reading the Ceremony is the same as experiencing the Ceremony. It is becoming apparent that this entry begins something multidimensional which affects the personal ability to mold new reality. The “forewarnings” about this in “The Gift” are real. “The Gift” is an excellent way to explore “energy” if you are new to this work.
- “The Gift” Meditations on the Beloved can strongly affect bonding in personal relationships as well as the creation of relationships. The complete Meditations for preparation for the Ceremony are given at the end of the Book. These seem to increase, to make more real and tangible, a manifesting desire for a new Honor, a new kind of loving, reconnecting “partnership in sensuality.”

The Manifestos...

Inherent in “The Gift: A Sensual Journey into Personal Alchemy” by Diana Rose are implied principles about the alchemical Power of Women – introducing “The Gift.”

Women have an alchemical role to play right now, an ancient power seeded, encoded, evolving in Women – subliminally many Women know this is coming, this is the Time.

What is this “alchemy” for modern Women?

What is the implied power of the body as we age -- a vaster spirit and heart of Women that leads to new Love, and thus new Life, in new Dimensions...? We often speak of 2012 – but do not speak of “what is love after 2012...” “The Gift” begins this dialogue and journey, which must be undertaken by the Woman and in a surprising way: By loving men more. And by reconnecting with a deep and ancient alchemy of the Feminine... What happens when the deep mystical becomes part of practical daily lives of Women? It is said in “The Gift”: Men will never be the same...

Fundamental Principles

“The Gift” is an esoteric book of “received” information which is said to “reveal” an Ancient Ceremony of Love to be activated and performed only by the Woman. This seems simplistic -- but surprising events surrounding the book and its readers indicate that something quite different is occurring.

Thus: This is “food for thought,” principles which seem to emerge from the book, considerations about Women and Men in our time – perhaps the most important time in human history to be Woman – and Man!

● “The Gift” is about creating a Partner in a New Dimension.

In this sense, it is important for those who want to join more fully in a new kind of Love, partnership in marriage; but also for those who do not have a Beloved, who feel that they must command as well as desire a different kind of Love in Honor The Gift is about Creating this as Reality.

● “The Gift” is not a sexual techniques or tantric manual.

The Body’s real Wisdom and Love (not key sexual points for greater pleasure) – are Honored privately and beyond Earth, understood as part of personal power or “ascension” -- not leaving the Body behind as if it were “bad,” but coming to know, to love, and to join the Wise Body with Heart, Soul, Mind: As Time Machine and Space Ship. These are literal not figurative.

● “The Gift” is about knowing yourself in a higher dimension through activation of your own Body Wisdom.

In honoring our beautiful Bodies as ancient and profound Gift of Love from every generation of ancestors, a blessing in itself -- then being able to create Love and Honor of another in a new Dimension not bound by Earth: Partnership in preparation for “The Doorway of the Two,” a Ceremony emerging in the new, unexpected book of The Gift: “The Book of Honor.”

These principles are buried in the alchemical Ceremony and implications not always stated directly are emerging. A key question for those who want to read this book, (the same as going through the Ceremony for the first time) is: WHAT DOES IT MEAN? What are the implications for me personally – here and now?

Who are Women? Why have we lived these roles and carried the peaceful side of civilization and love into human evolution. Who are we to Become? How does this affect us when we try to love, to touch each other in some new way that we know is possible – that are wildest imaginations of Love are not wild at all... But the future of Love. How can Women and Men Love if we are to evolve...? Thus these few Fundamental Principles are offered as a kind of guide to the emerging Labyrinth of “The Gift,” springing from the questions and queries of women and men who have read the book. As you begin its most unexpected journey remember: It does not go where you think. ☺ Nor do you... ☺

This is a book read by two: You and your Body; it if does not at first make sense to you, listen to your Body... ☺ Some ideas it raises:

1. That it is the time in which Women have a new alchemical role to play, activating a kind of super-dimensional empowerment and honor of mind, soul, heart, body, seeded in ancient times to emerge on Earth and evolve beyond, beginning with the Woman;
2. That this movement of the Feminine is not taking place in one dimension/on one planet but is a more universal emergence – and to consider those implications in the context of Love between Women and Men;
3. That an ancient Feminine is and was always a vast Sisterhood of Life beyond seen veils, learning how to create this Time though loving the Man more, not less, thus coming into balance which exceeds our sense of self, of human beingness – something we constantly seek in every philosophy and religion;

● “The Gift” ‘s elements, sequences, room, symbols, steps in Ceremony contain subtle ancient Alchemy -- (called by some “magic” – think in terms of extradimensional activity beyond normal 24/7 time and space) – which is to be balanced in this Ceremony. Known and practiced by all traditional peoples but much meaning/sensing is lost today. These elements are veiled in the book, but some teachers are revealing the play of the elements of “Earth, Air, Fire, Water” and the Cosmos in sequence in the steps of the Ceremony and preparation. (See Sara Pelfrey’s “The Alchemy of The Gift”)

● “The Gift” explicitly seeks to bring in “alchemy” or energy of the divine Feminine through “The Voices” – including voices of traditional cultures and beyond local Earth space-time. To those unfamiliar with esoteric work, this may seem quite “far out.” But listen to your Body. The same as reading the Ceremony:

- Reading “The Touch of the Voices” at the end of the book is actually another kind of activation and training which can empower personal daily life. Evoked is a sense of exploring multidimensional sisterhood,” quite powerful and more natural than we think, whether male or female reader.

4. That it is the Woman who must create the space of Honor for herself and all of her Children; that it is she who holds the power of creation of Honor by all Men and by all of Sisters for each other; that this is a primary act of her creation on Earth; that she joins with others in this act; that in her thoughts of Love she is never alone but always in sisterhood, with or without awareness;
5. That the Body is very wise and wiser still for all as they age, become elders in wisdom; that the Body is to be fully Loved at every age in a new way, recognizing its growing wisdom with every year; that the Body is a key reader of this book; that the Body with soul, heart, and mind – is both space ship and time machine; (Though this is yet to be “discovered” by science, its discovery as the Woman begins to give The Gift literally and through every metaphor, is even more potent for the development of new life and evolution.)
6. That a key to this empowerment of Women and the evolution, transmutation of this and greater dimensional senses -- planets in new dimensions -- is opening the heart and learning to Love Men more, not less; to solve problems by learning how to Love on all fronts rather than being consumed by negative irritations, lamentations about the past, hatred of eons of history, a deep sense of dishonor, oppression of Women and their children or of others. Instead: simply to subsume all of it through Love of a different kind, a different sense of sisterhood and brotherhood, a new sense of the unusual nature of power, honor, and Love inherent in all Women, in all life-bearing, life-nurturing when this is fully invoked as intended, including the Man finding the power of the Feminine within him;
7. That Women hold the key to higher or extra-dimensional or transmuted Love in the human species, expanded in higher dimensions through certain commitments to their own honor, the honor of all of their sisters, and the ability to love Men more, not less: “A Love you can neither understand

• You have not completed the reading/experience of the Ceremony of The Gift until you have read the Meditations and The Touch of the Voices. These are the “points” where “extradimensional” self-expression of the power of Love and a Feminine creating force seem to “touch” your reality and relations of today!

• “The Gift” represents alchemical intention and Ceremony which can activate in Men something which has been lost. It is intended for this time; it is intended for more than one dimension and to knit together an experience of multiple dimensions; and it is intended for time in the Past, Present, and Future. It contains instructions for Translators, in which the Ceremony is to be translated into ancient languages.

- It is in itself a Ceremony which projects a different kind of Love into the future for Women and Men. It is implied that that which was lost was simply seeded to appear at this time in different form and in more than one dimension.

nor deny: Resistance is Futile.”

8. That it is a different kind of Woman that will emerge from this time – and a Woman who is not held and creative in energies only of the Earth;
9. That the Ceremony, the Gift that the Woman has to give can be activated only at her discretion and through her power, and only Women (or men for whom the feminine is the driving force/balance of spirit) -- can give this Gift to activate life and Love in a new dimensions of reality;
10. That the very power of the Ceremony is created when a Woman who deeply honors herself and her own power feels so honored by her Beloved partner that she feels she must give The Gift, her heart literally “overflows”: that the Woman must create this space in which only Honor will be her place and she does not deter from that;
11. That The Gift and the realization of a more universal power of Love and self-activation cannot ever be “taken” from a Woman nor can she be forced to give it, or the power which is hers to invoke will not come into this reality;
12. That as Women and Men become older and wiser, the Body and its intuitive multidimensional elements become more powerful (just the time when Women are pushed into negative self-image, trained to forget their sensuality, cannot see through society’s blindness a new beauty emerging: that THIS is the time to create a personal beauty, an ability to Love beyond comprehension, aspects of Honor in partnership which would be yet invisible to the young;
13. That it is the Woman who will create The Beloved partner who can handle the power of Honor and the depth of “A Love you can neither understand nor deny”;
14. That Women hold incredible power through a universal Sisterhood in which the first principle is to always honor each other; a Sisterhood in which

What does it mean “to love him more”?

If you are a Woman, it does not mean to accept dishonor in loving, but to accept only honor for yourself, your body, and for others. “To Love Him More” means to forgive from a position of expanded self-knowledge, to forgive the self and others from a position of confidence that is expansive and not judgmental:

“To Love Him More” is to be in integrity in life in which these are how you approach the steps:

- To Love as you would want to be loved;
- To Forgive as you would want to be forgiven;
- To be nonjudgmental as you do not see the whole picture and do not know the whole person in complete story and all of their days and all of their ways.

no Woman would ever dishonor a Sister by trying to take a partner from her or drive a wedge between her and a Man she loves in order to take him for herself; thus it comes into the purview of power for Women, not Men, to end the dishonor of all Women and their children and transmute new power and evolution for the whole species;

15. That “Women” means both Women and those who are biologically female and men for whom a female spirit is dominant; that “Men” means both Men and those who are biologically male and Women for whom a male spirit is dominant; that all relationships of honoring Love, partnership, and marriage are honored by all Sisters and Brothers.

16. That no Human will ever feel fully loved and safe among other Humans, that Human fertility cannot be fully restored, until we care for every single Child on the planet as if that Child were their own personal offspring, and this is part of the message and activating of The Gift; taking every single Child into a loving personal home and family, loving and honoring loving them as we would want to be loved and honored; not ever taking them into institutions, not distanced by sending a few dollars here and there; that until we feel connected personally to every child on the planet as our own; and until every single Child is loved and cared for by Humans, a species where all in the universe know that there will be no abandoned Children:

- THEN we can feel true Love in another dimension; then Women and Men can Love each other without the fear (always living in the back of the mind) that one might be abandoned – because as long as one child lives in abandonment that fear will affect the ability of the species to Love; and to become Sisters and Brothers with other species throughout dimensions and unimaginable universes; that this is our growing into full humanness;

“To Love Him More”...

...means to be able to find Love within in a new self that knows beyond what it sees in the small corners of visible life, into the vast expanse of emerging life that knows only how to Love.

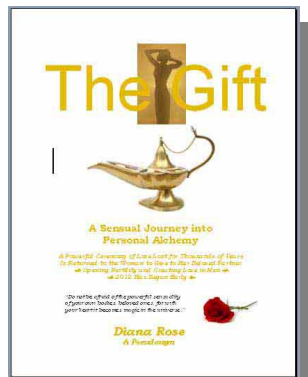

And standing there, tries for the first time “To Love Him More” from a new place of knowledge and circumference, from Alpha and Omega, from the beginning of your life until the end of your life seeing it as a whole of your days and not from one moment of anguish, mistrust, a sense of powerlessness – but from power in a New Dimension...

- 17. That we must above all as Men and Women honor each other and be thoughtful and meditative and caring in our actions such that there is never an act of touch or love making which does not water and grow the honor of Life, the honor of each other; thus, there would never the circumstance in which a Child is not wanted. Is conceived and born without Love and the Full Invitation of Life; that this is one of the principles of transforming a less thoughtful, confused, and wandering species into a loving, expansive, eternal species.

These are some of the Fundamental Principles, perhaps the Manifestos of “The Gift: A Sensual Journey into Personal Alchemy” by Diana Rose, a gift hard won and lovingly offered...
